AUSTIN MICHAEL EVANS)

GOVERNMENT’S RESPONSE TO
DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO SEVER PARTIES

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorneys, and provides the following response to Defendant Austin Michael Evans’s Motion to Sever Parties. (D.E. # 164). After consideration of defendant’s motion, the government submits that it has no opposition to a severance of Defendant Evans from Defendant Pecora. Counsel for the government will consult with counsel for the defendant Evans to reset the case for trial.

Conclusion

Accordingly for the reasons stated herein, the defendant's Motion to Sever Parties should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
/s Philip H. Wehby
